High School:	Graduation Date:
---------------------	-------------------------

You are eligible to apply for this award if:

1. You are graduating from high school
2. You are an active, registered member of Boy Scout Troop 16.
3. You are planning to further your education through vocational training, college, or military service.
4. You are not receiving a full-tuition scholarship for higher education

Evaluation Criteria:

A committee to determine the awardees will score applications. Sections A – C are rated using a point system. The points are totaled and the candidates with the most points after achieving a minimum number will be awarded the scholarships. The Scouting involvement will be weighted by 50%, community service will be weighted by 30%, and the essay will be weighted by 20%

Your answers must be verifiable, thoughtful, and organized. The quality of service is considered as important as quantity. Be sure to follow the instructions carefully and provide the requested information. Make your essay enjoyable to read and let the committee members get to know you better.
